Admin history: This collection originates from Panteg and Pontypool Urban District Council Parks, Cemeteries and Allotments Department.

Panteg Urban District Council, Monmouthshire, was established under the provisions of the Local Government Act 1894. The council initially took over the powers of the Local Board of Health. The Council's responsibilities included parks and burials.

Pontypool Urban District Council, Monmouthshire, was established under the provisions of the Local Government Act 1894. It was enlarged on 1 April 1935 by amalgamation with Abersychan and Panteg urban districts and comprised the parishes of Abersychan, Pant-teg and Pontypool. Its responsibilities included parks and burials. Pontypool Urban District Council was abolished in 1974 following local government reorganisation and its functions were assumed by the new Borough of Torfaen. As such Torfaen cemetery service was the successor to this department.

The material mostly relates to Panteg cemetery. Panteg Cemetery had its first internment in 1906.
